

Supply Nation

Festive Season Catalogue

Wakulda 24

Wakulda translates to 'As One' in Gathang, the language of the Birrbay, Warrimay and Guringai peoples.

This artwork illustrates the connectivity of the festive season between communities. Despite coming from different nations with unique lands, languages, stories and practices, the core essence of this season reaches all, as we welcome the New Year 'As One'.

This artwork was created by Supply Nation Graphic Designer Tarran Marr-Harris, a proud Birrbay, Warrimay and Dhanggati man. Tarran envisions the design as a continuation of the 'Wakulda' story — evolving and expanding each year.

Contents

Indigenous Business Direct	4
BW Tribal	5
Chocolate On Purpose	6
Clothing the Gaps	7
Geared Up Culcha	8
Kakadu Organics	9
Marrawuy Journeys	10
Ngarga Warendj	11
Riley Callie Resources	12
Saretta Art & Design	13
Yaala Sparkling	14
Yaye	15

Supply Nation acknowledges the Traditional Owners of Country throughout Australia, where we live, work and are visiting from. We acknowledge the continuing connection of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to land, sky, waters and Community, and pay our respects to Elders, past and present.

Indigenous Business Direct

Supply Nation is the Australian leader in supplier diversity.

Our Indigenous Business Direct platform is the largest national database of verified Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander businesses.

It's an essential resource for anyone seeking the perfect gift for their loved ones, as well as larger projects and procurement solutions.

Find Indigenous businesses that are:

- delivering unique products and services
- located in metropolitan, remote and rural areas
- women-owned or family-operated
- active across every industry

From meaningful apparel, to children's books, gift hampers and products infused with native ingredients – Indigenous Business Direct has you covered this festive season and beyond.

Looking to join Supply Nation? Registration is simple and free of charge for Indigenous businesses. Learn more about the benefits here.

SEARCH INDIGENOUS BUSINESS DIRECT

BW Tribal

 SHOP NOW

BW Tribal collaborates with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists to craft pieces that bring meaningful stories to life on everyday wear.

More than just a clothing brand, BW Tribal connects the wearer to the rich history and vibrant present of Indigenous Australia. Founders Warwick (Jiddabul) and Maxine (Erub Island) are committed to uplifting Indigenous voices and talent, leading a diverse team of skilled creators.

Whether you are searching for something memorable for your staff members or loved ones, BW Tribal offers a unique range of high-quality homewares and garments showcasing beautiful artistry. Explore the collection today to find the perfect gift, guaranteed to bring a smile to anyone who receives them.

Chocolate On Purpose

SHOP NOW

Chocolate On Purpose is a powerful social enterprise, founded by Wiradjuri woman Fiona Harrison. By blending gourmet chocolate with native botanicals, Chocolate on Purpose honours Indigenous knowledge and creates meaningful connections through flavour.

With a focus on ethical sourcing, they empower First Nations farmers, uplift communities, and promote cultural reclamation and environmental stewardship. Their Aussie Bushfood Christmas Hamper showcases premium, handcrafted chocolates infused with native ingredients like Ooray, Boombera and Gulalung. Elevate your impact this Christmas with a gift that combines luxury, cultural significance and social responsibility – a perfect way to say Gadhaang Gurwaldhaany Dhurinya Yiradhu (Season's Greetings).

Clothing The Gaps

 SHOP NOW

Clothing The Gaps is an Aboriginal social enterprise and Certified B Corp. They offer a range of ethically made, fashion-forward products that empower people to wear their values with pride. From statement tees to hoodies and accessories, their collections are designed to spark conversations about First Nations justice.

With both Ally Friendly and Mob Only ranges, everyone can find something meaningful. For those seeking affordable options, check out the stickers starting at $8, pins at $15 and Melbourne-made socks at $25. Whether you are after everyday tees or limited-edition pieces like the festive Blakmas range, each product is crafted with care, blending style and purpose for a positive impact.

Geared Up Culcha

 SHOP NOW

Geared Up Culcha is an Indigenous-owned business based in Meanjin (Brisbane), specialising in branded merchandise and custom Indigenous apparel. With over 10 years of experience in supplying high-quality promotional products, they offer a diverse range of corporate gifting options to suit every budget and taste.

From unique personal keepsakes, workwear, PPE, to branding solutions – their curated selection has something for everyone. Have a yarn with the Geared Up Culcha team to explore their extensive range and find the perfect items for your clients or team.

Kakadu Organics

 SHOP NOW

Kakadu Organics is a unique Indigenous company supplying a wide range of native bush foods and wellness products.

Drawing on traditional wisdom and ancient mythology taught and passed down through generations, they offer organic bush teas, native jams and chutneys, oils and dukkahs, corporate gifts and much more.

First featured on Shark Tank Australia in 2016, Kakadu Organics now supplies leading hotel chains, airports, department stores and exports internationally.

Marrawuy Journeys

SHOP NOW

Marrawuy Journeys is a dynamic expression of contemporary Aboriginal art, deeply rooted in the heart and soul of Sarah, a Ngiyampaa woman whose lineage and experiences shape her distinctive artistic vision. Inspired by the resilience and forward momentum symbolised by the red kangaroo, Marrawuy Journeys offers a pathway to well-being, healing and cultural connection.

Each artwork Sarah creates – whether it's a custom piece, RAP artwork or a framed canvas print – reflects a journey of resilience and growth. Extending into the corporate world, they provide team-building art workshops, facilitation services and artist-in-residence programs. Join them on this journey of personal growth, reconciliation, and cultural enrichment, where every service offering is designed to unlock the potential within.

Ngarga Warendj

Ngarga Warendj is dedicated to producing high-quality, contemporary Indigenous art inspired by traditional symbols of southeast Australia. Their work not only celebrates the rich cultural heritage of Indigenous peoples, but also bridges the connection between ancient traditions and modern applications.

Ngarga Warendj offers a range of artistic products and services tailored for corporate clients, public art installations and cultural initiatives, ensuring that each piece is culturally significant and aesthetically compelling. For those seeking unique gifts for any occasion, Ngarga Warendj has a diverse selection to choose from. They are eager to assist with gift requirements, including gift hampers, for 2024 and beyond. To discuss your requirements, reach out to Nicole at nicole@ngargawarendj.com

Riley Callie Resources

Riley Callie Resources specialises in bringing Indigenous perspectives to the classroom.

Their collection of education resources includes Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander authored and illustrated picture books, flash cards, teaching materials, games, puzzles, classroom decor and much more.

They are passionate about the inclusion of authentic educational tools that celebrate and showcase Indigenous Australia. Share First Nations culture with your children, grandkids, and loved ones this festive season with Riley Callie Resources.

Saretta Art & Design

 SHOP NOW

Driven by a passion for sharing her unique and invaluable culture, Wonnarua woman Saretta Fielding creates authentic, engaging, and thought-provoking fine artwork and visual design. Her work at Saretta Art & Design welcomes all and enhances connection to spirit and community.

Her pieces reflect the style of traditional sand engravings found throughout Wonnarua Country and the Hunter Region of NSW. Using a sand-based medium and engraving technique, Saretta's creations are intricately connected to Country. Explore the diverse range of artwork, decor and apparel, or discuss a commissioned piece at Saretta Art & Design.

Yaala Sparkling

SHOP NOW

Yaala Sparkling crafts vibrant beverages that honour the true flavours enjoyed by Ancestors for generations. Founded by proud Wiradjuri Yinaa (woman) Tara Croker, Yaala means 'the present moment' in her language.

Yaala Sparkling are committed to sustainable growth, from the plants they use, to their business practice. By working with Indigenous wild harvesters and local farmers, Yaala Sparkling ensures each drink is crafted with purpose. Their sugar-free, low-calorie beverages are free from artificial colours or preservatives, making them a refreshing, healthy choice for any occasion. With every sip, Yaala Sparkling brings the modern taste of native Australian botanicals to life.

Yaye

Yaye, the Arrernte word for big sister, offers luxurious bath and body products made with native Central Australian botanicals.

Founded by Warumungu and Luritja woman, Melissa Cole, Yaye blends ancient Aboriginal wellness traditions with modern skincare, promoting cultural heritage and sustainability through ethically sourced, high-quality ingredients.

Their extensive selection of products, such as body butter, body scrub, shampoo and conditioner, makes Yaye an ideal choice for special gifts during the holiday season. Customers can enjoy free shipping on all orders over $100 Australia-wide.

