Detailed description of sampling

Should exhibitor giveaways not meet ACC’s food & beverage sampling guidelines an External Supply Charge of $430 will apply. Please refer to the Exhibition Handbook to review the guidelines.

FOOD & BEVERAGE UNDERTAKING AND RELEASE

- 1.1 Warrants to ACC that all food and beverage brought into ACC by or on behalf of the exhibitor (including by any of the exhibitor’s contractors) is safe for human consumption and complies with all applicable food safety standards and laws.
- 1.2 Warrants to ACC that all food and beverage will be manufactured, stored, transported and prepared in accordance with all applicable safety standards and laws.
- 1.3 Undertakes to ACC that it has in place adequate product liability insurance for any claims arising from death or injury from the consumption of food or beverage.
- 1.4 Undertakes to ACC that all beverage sampling will be in accordance with the appropriate liquor licencing and responsible service of alcohol (RSA) requirements.
- 1.5 Releases ACC from any claim in respect of the consumption of food and beverage.
- 1.6 Indemnifies ACC for all costs, expenses, damage and loss (including arising from any third-party claims against ACC) in respect of the consumption of the food and beverage at ACC’s premises or arising from a breach of the above warranties.

The exhibitor agrees that the above terms will form part of the contract between ACC and the exhibitor and will apply regardless of whether the food and/or beverage was brought onto ACC’s premises with ACC’s agreement or otherwise.
